

Dear Clerk of The District Court: Date: 3-8-08

I'm writing to you in regards to a court order for the Law Library, that I'm truly in the need of. I have three claims pending and one I'm just filing, under case no. 07-C-766 I am now working on my Discovery, and my Discovery close date is set for April 4, 2008 against Larry Martin v.s. Mr. Turner, et al. I also have a claim against Tom Dart, et al, et al. under case no. 07-C-6476, And officer Moss under case no. 07-C-6100. I have Three claim pending and one on the way, so I'm truly in the need of "Extra" time in the Law Library. I need this court order as soon as possible, I do have a deadline. And The Librarian at Cook County is not honoring my deadline, By getting me to the Law Library every other week.

I can not research my case in two or three days at the month. Please! Send me this order back as soon as possible.

I also would like to thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Betty Martin
